Dec. 7, 1912.

Mr. A. Clark,

East Lake, Tenn.

Dear Sir:-

I have your good letter of December 2nd in which you tell something of yourself, for all of which I am much obliged.

As you know, the cost of living in all parts of the United States has almost doubled in the last ten years, and Gainesville is no exception to the rule. I believe anyone can live here, though, as reasonably as he could in any other town of equal size. House rent ranges from $15.00 to $25.00 per month, according to size and location of the property. A $15.00 a month house would be a cottage of about five rooms, with modern improvements.

I gave your name to the Secretary of the Board of Trade who is looking for a man, and it may be that you will get a letter from him. I hope that you can come down this winter and look over the situation here. I am sure you will be pleased with the place and the people.

Yours sincerely,

Business Editor.
