

LORGNETTE

Quarterly Review of Children's and Young Adults' Books

Author

Labrecque, Ellen

Illustrator

Illustrated by Manuel Gutierrez

Reviewer

O'Quin, Ashley

Pages

108p

Price

$6.99

ISBN

978-0-399-54410-1 (PAP)

Publisher & Date

Penguin Workshop, 2023

Classification

Nonfiction (782.42164092 or biography)

Grade Level

2-5

**

Book Review: WHO WAS FRANK SINATRA?

WHO WAS FRANK SINATRA? is a wonderful beginner-level biography that introduces the younger generation to "Ol' Blue Eyes." In easy-to-understand language, the author covers Sinatra's life, both on and off stage, and the climate of the world around him. World War II, the Rat Pack, and many other interesting people and situations are covered with explanations from the author. The book is wonderfully illustrated, giving a face to a man who, though long gone, had a voice that lives on.

