

LORGNETTE

Quarterly Review of Children's and Young Adults' Books

Author

Parappukkaran, Sandhya

Illustrator

Illustrated by Michelle Pereira

Reviewer

O'Quin, Ashley

Pages

Unpaged

Price

$17.99

ISBN

978-1-4197-6158-4

Publisher & Date

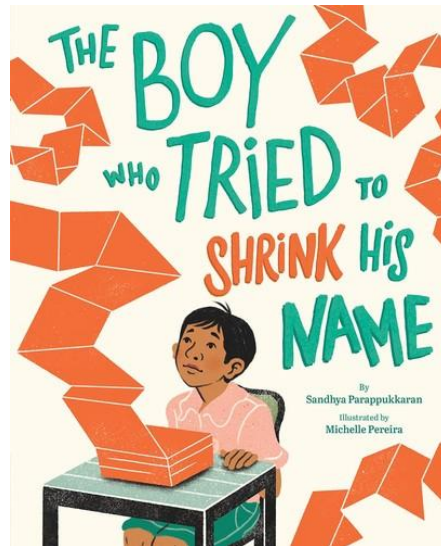

Abrams Books, 2023

Classification

Fiction

Grade Level

PreK-2

Book Review: BOY WHO TRIED TO SHRINK HIS NAME, THE

THE BOY WHO TRIED TO SHRINK HIS NAME is the story of Zimdalamashkermishkada who is just starting school. He wonders how his teachers and classmates will be able to say his name. After speaking with his mother, he decides that his name belongs to him, and he should not be worried about what others think. Once he gets to know his classmates, he is then able to open up about his “full-length” name and share it with others.

Heart of Texas Literature
Center

Children's and Young Adults' Books