Dec. 14, 1912.

Mr. A. A. Gossett,

Union City, Tenn.

Dear Bro. Gossett:

Yours of the 11th inst. received. I understand that Wilson Company has received a letter from you in reference to the proposition. I do not know whether the opening is in the mens furnishing department or not, but Mr. Morrow told me that he would write to you, and he will of course give you the information in this connection.

Gainesville has a population of about 8000 people, a very pretty little city. The cost of living which you speak of is, of course, higher everywhere now than it was some years ago, but I do not believe it is any higher here than in any other town situated similarly to Gainesville of equal size. It is a very healthy town, the water and climate both good, and you need not fear as to the health of the community. I am sending you a booklet which gives some information.

Yours sincerely,

Business Editor.
