Dec. 14, 1912.

Dr. P. D. Houston,
Lewisburg, Tenn.

Dear Bro. Houston:-

Your letter of the 9th received and noted. We will be glad to have you come and spend the winter at Gainesville. I believe that you can rent two or three rooms for light house-keeping here. There are not, however, any places for rent in Dixie-land Park, as this property is, at the present time, unimproved; there are many people in the city, however, who rent rooms.

We would be very glad indeed to have you come and spend your winter with us, and believe you would find it pleasant. We certainly will not have any zero weather here. I doubt if you could do much in your profession here for the reason that the town seems to be pretty well worked in this line.

Yours sincerely,

Business Editor.
