a living. That in some way Mr. may be able to compensate you for all your sorrows and troubles, Mrs H. has had an ugly attack of brachitis since our return but she is some better.

Thanking you for all your goodness to us and kind regards to you and family - I remain cordially yours,
D. S. Hartog.

Dear Bro. Colson

Hiram O. April 14th 1916

We reached home safe after our pleasant sojourn with you at Gainesville, I am sure we highly appreciated the courtesies extended to us by you all, we found everything in good order at home save one of our water pipes in the cellar had been trying with jockfrost and needed the attention of the plumber, our neighbors had anticipated our coming and had the house warmed, we were glad to get home and get rested up, a broken bridge across the Tennessee River sent our train around by Knoxville and kept us two nights on the train instead of one, we have been exceedingly busy since our return in putting our home in order as this is our time for papering and renewing things as I expect shortly to go to Peuna, to try to close up a deal that will enable my sister Mrs. West to purchase the place at Gainesville on which her heart seems bent, their misfortunes have been very painful to me and it would be a great relief to me to see them again settled in their own home where they could make

Dear Bro. Colson Hiram O. April 14th 1916.
We reached home safe after
our pleasant sojourn with you at Gainesville,
I am sure we highly appreciated the courtesies
in good order at home save one of our water pipes in the cellar had been toying with Jack Frost and needed the attention of the plumber, our
neighbors had anticipated our coming and had the house warmed. We were glad & got home and get rested up, a broken bridge across the
and kept us two nights on the train instead of one.
