Dear Bro:-

Doubtless you are surprised to hear from me. Our school will be out June 1st, on which day I am to graduate. On account of this and getting to my first appointment, I will have some necessary expenses. It is, indeed, a trying experience for me to attempt to borrow it; but I realize that this is the only chance for me to get it, and that a Bro. is the most liable one that I

It is, indeed, a trying experience for me to attempt to borrow it; but I realize that this is the only chance for me to get it, and that a Bro. is the most liable one that I can depend on, and approach in time of need.

By being very close I think I can get through and to my first appointment with $2500. If you can and feel so disposed to do me this favor, I am willing to ring a note payable on, or before, Sept. 15, 1911, with 8% interest. I feel sure that my father would sign it.

I intend to preach some in the summer, and am thinking of teaching a school in Tennessee, which will start in July. I feel sure that I can easily

I feel humiliated to ask this of you, but my people are not too able, and if they were, they are not in sympathy with my work. I have worked my way this year, and managed to save enough from the laundry agency to pay nearly all my expenses, not getting a cent from home.

We are having a nice time. I may be home for a short stay during the present year. I am anxious to be at home and worship with church at Gainesville once more. I often think about the brethren there
