Mr. B. R. Colson,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Brother Colson:

Your letter came to me this morning. I was more than glad to get it. I am trying to follow your advice and I have made out two applications and directed them as you suggested. I am also sending you a notice from the teacher of the Shorthand Department.

As to the bookkeeper there is not another boy here who is a member of the Church of Christ. Most of them are pretty rough. Lots of them believe in the Digressive, but that does not suit us.

Brother Colson, I have made my arrangements to leave here next Thursday afternoon or Friday morning, and if you do not have time to attend to this and get a letter here by Friday morning you might wire me at my expense and let me know whether it would be worth while for me to come on down there. I will likely spend Sunday in Winston-Salem, N. C. with Brother W. L. Reeves. He has a position spotted there for me, and is wanting me to stay there with him and help all I can in the spread of the Master's work. If I do not settle there it maybe that I will come on down to Gainesville, provided you think I might land one of the positions you have in view.

I certainly appreciate the interest you have shown me. Accept my sincere thanks for it.

I will look for word from you Thursday or Friday morning.

Yours in hope of Heaven,

R. C. McKeale

P.S. Bro. Colson, I am sending you this recommendation from my teacher and ask that you return it to me. If you do not have time to send it to me here send to W. L. Reeves I ought to get it there by Sat. R.C. 307 Pond St.
