B. R. Colson, President.

My Dear Sir

Have just returned from the country and find your letter of Oct. 5th awaiting me. In reply to yours I am pleased to state that Mr. C.

M. Ross who is associated with Senator McMilland and Judge Going is an eminent landscape man is in my opinion one of the ablest men in the country for beautifying your 300 acres. Mr. Ross had charge as chief in designing the landscape of the Chicago Worlds Fair, St.

Louis Fair and also the (. . .
