Rev. T. B. Larrimore,
Pres. Dixieland College,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sir:-

We would thank you if you would investigate us when you are considering the selection of an architect for your proposed college buildings, and allow our representative to appear before your building committee to confer at the proper time. We have had considerable experience in the design of buildings of this character and other public buildings throughout the south, and are thoroughly familiar with the usual requirements.

Our charges are no greater than the uniform charges of all reputable architects.

Trusting that we may serve you, we are

Respectfully yours,

SAYRE & BALDWIN,
