Dates (Inclusive): 1807-1876

Dates (Bulk): 1807-1876

Location: Center for Restoration Studies

Language of Materials: English

Scope and Content Note: This collection includes some books, a family Bible, correspondence, birth & death records, ephemera, and watercolor sketches depicting life in 1850s Jerusalem by a member of the Barclay family. This collection is on loan from Lou David Allen. The collection is housed in one box.

Biographical Note: “James Turner Barclay was born in Hanover county, Virginia, on the 22nd day of May, 1807. He offered his services to the American Christian Missionary Society, and in 1850 went to Jerusalem as our first missionary to the Holy Land. There he prepared the material for his book, "The City of the Great King." This work is a standard authority on Jerusalem in England as well as America. On his return to the United States, in 1854, he published this book. At the time of his death he was sixty-seven years and five months old.”¹
