

Special Collections and Archives

Brown Library

Abilene Christian University

This document is from the Landon Brady Saunders Papers, Center for Restoration Studies Manuscripts #575.

The Saunders Papers are held at the Brown Library in Abilene, Texas, and include Saunders' personal and organizational records of Heartbeat. This digital asset was generated by Heartbeat and/or ACU archives staff and preserves the original formatting, spelling, punctuation, and other features as it was created, or as close to the original as possible.

This and other material can be viewed and downloaded from the ACU online digital repository at <https://digitalcommons.acu.edu/saunders/>

ACU_Saunders_MS575_5074

SUMMARY KEYWORDS

Dusty Rhodes, Dusty, frontier, serve, Spirit, strong advocate, work, Abilene, youth groups, record, lives, ranching, America, qualities, oil, cornerstones, reputation, fiber, country, people

00:00

Dusty Rhodes is a man who believes in the frontier spirit. He knows that a strong family life is a strong America. And he lives that belief every day. And dusty knows too that the frontier spirit means achievement through hard work. He's worked hard to be successful. And as a small businessman, Dusty Rhodes has built a record of fairness and a record of honesty into his success. As a lawyer, Dusty Rhodes has a reputation as a strong advocate for all who seek His help. He's fought hard for those who've put their property their lives and their faith in his hands. And he's one as a man with experience in farming, ranching and oil. Dusty Rhodes understands the problems of these vital industries. He knows what it takes to provide America with food, fiber and energy. Yes, dusty knows that hard work and personal initiative are cornerstones of the frontier spirit. They also believe that the frontier spirit means a willingness to serve. Dusty and Nancy have served the people of this area for 20 years. They work with area youth groups, and they're active members of their church. A four year Navy veteran dusty serves on the Military Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, and he's actively involved in the Abilene industrial foundation. Dusty Rhodes is worried about what's happening to the people in our district. He's concerned that the frontier spirit could disappear from the American way of life and with it, the inner strength of our country. Dusty Rhodes believes in the qualities that made our country great. The same qualities you believe in. The frontier spirit is a part of Dusty Rhodes and we need to make him a part of Congress. There is no man better qualified to serve you. Help yourself help elect Dusty Rhodes to Congress.