

gent with a B.A. in Bible, is directing "The Infernal Machine" by Jean Cocteau, assisted by Lola Sue Scobey.

A Cappella to Present Christmas Concert Fri.

The annual A Cappella Chorus Christmas concert, directed by Vernon Moody, will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in Sewell Auditorium.

Admission is $1 for students.

An entertaining and widely varied program will be presented as a "Christmas Party" for the audience. Not only will the 75-member chorus perform but solos, duets, trios, ensembles, and comedy monologues will also be featured.

Music ranges from "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" to "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

TWO students on the program Bible Lectures Mary Walker, tary.

Mike Weed a graduate Bible pear on panel ture series Feb

General topi will be Christi

Weed will sp discussion of th and the Origin His subtopic is ledge and the

Dr. Neil Li professor of E fellow panel discuss "Biblic and Scientific

"The Origin of the Bible" is for Feb. 25.

Wilbanks an guson, associat ble, will discus "Text and