1966 Full Color
Film Series

"Worlds in Conflict"

featuring BATSELL BARRETT BAXTER

The new full color TV programs, featuring Batsell Barrett Baxter, have created a demand far beyond our expectations. More television stations are wanting to give us free time for telecasting than we can supply films on our present budget. Our budget was planned for and can take care of all the other personnel and filming expenses, but this unexpected demand for the extra film prints falls within a vacuum, and we do not have the money for them.

For $112.00, or $9.33 per month, one of these prints can be bought and shown to an estimated audience of from 400,000 to over 1,000,000 people each year for three years and will play in approximately 78 cities across the United States.

Do you feel that we should make a push to underwrite the cost of enough of these prints to meet the offers of free (or public service) time from the television stations?

Look over these sermon topics; see if there is one here that you would spend $9.33 per month for one year that it might be shown in almost 80 cities.
